

ALPINE TRADITION

The French luxury L'Armancette Hotel offers a breathtaking panoramic view of the mountains and stylish bathrooms with TOTO products.

L'Armancette Hotel is the destination for insiders and landscape lovers, located in the Alpine village of Montjoie in Haute-Savoie. It is a rare spot for simple pleasures, exclusive excursions and Alpine tradition. This peaceful, quiet refuge only has 17 rooms, offering visitors a respite while enjoying the breathtaking panoramic view of the mountains, including Mont Blanc.

An authentic, sophisticated travel destination

Once a comfortable family home, this very charming hotel is located in the heart of the village of Saint-Nicolas-de-Véroce. It was renovated using traditional materials from Haute-Savoie, like Mont Blanc granite, wood shingles and limestone slate to harmoniously integrate it into the local architecture. A sophisticated interior made of old brushed wood and rare natural stone awaits the guests – both very characteristic of the look of this small, yet elegant refuge. Intricate textiles complete the look, creating a warm contrast.

Of the hotel's 17 rooms, over half are designed for families. Two rooms on the top floor also have a fireplace. Several of the rooms on three floors provide views of the Saint-Nicolas-de-Véroce's church bell tower as well as the surrounding mountain peaks.
